

Art at Coldfall

Why have we chosen these artists?

Relevant – Inspiring imitation – Playful – Diverse

Linking with the Coldfall Golden Strands

Social Justice and Activism

Many of the artists studied are trailblazers and activists for their diverse communities.

Representation

All children can feel represented by the artists they study.

Diversity and Inclusion

Diverse artists are studied with a variety of heritage, nationality, gender, sexuality and neurodiversity. Accessibility of the artists' works and their appeal to primary-aged children ensure all children are inspired to imitate.

Sustainability

Children will encounter artists working towards the conservation of the natural world. Many of the studied artists are using recycled materials in their works, or create works which reflect and respect the natural world.

Year Nursery

- Drawing: Tingatinga Cooperative
- Painting: Jackson Pollock
- Collage: Wasily Kandinsky

Year Reception

- Drawing: Chris Ofili
- Painting: Mark Rothko
- Collage: Chila Kumari Burman

Year One

- Drawing: Henri Matisse
- Painting: Bridget Riley
- 3D: Shona Kinloch

Year Two

- Drawing: Jean Michael Basquiat
- Painting: Yayoi Kusama
- 3D: Anthony Gormley

Year Three

- Drawing: Beatrix Potter
- Painting: Frank Bowling
- 3D: Anish Kapoor

Year Four

- Drawing: Adona Khare
- Painting: Lubaina Himid
- 3D: Zac Ove

Year Five

- Drawing: Georgia O'Keefe
- Painting: Leonora Carrington
- 3D: Sokari Douglas Camp

Year Six

- Drawing: Stephen Wiltshire

- Painting: David Hockney

- 3D: Henry Moore/ Barbara Hepworth

